

Linen Crash Saturday

Nine Cents per Yard

A value usually selling for 12½¢ per yard. We have a quantity of Crash that we bought at a little under price and are going to give you the benefit. This is an excellent chance for you to stock up on Crash.

This is a seventeen-inch Crash in bleached and unbleached, guaranteed pure linen, with a fast red or blue border, in fact a Crash worth 12½¢. We sell you this Crash on Saturday for 9¢ per yard.

A bargain in a Cotton Huck Towel at 10¢ each. Good weight, good size; bleached. Low price.

Special Value in Bath Towels, bleached, at two for 25 cents

PERRY & CAMP,

Telephone 258-4.

75 Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

MISSION LAMPS

$2.50 SPECIAL for Saturday! $2.50

We shall place on sale Saturday twelve Electric Lamps, Mission style, Weathered Oak finish at $2.50 each. These lamps are 22 inches high. Shade 12x12 inches. Base 6½ x 6½ inches. The glass in the shades is opalescent, of "high color," combining that brilliancy of hues and soft mellowness of effect secured only in high quality glass.

Each lamp is equipped with one key socket, six-foot silk cord and plug. These lamps are new, having just been unpacked, and will be shown on Friday in our windows. A splendid lamp to read or sew by, very attractive, and a special value at $2.50.

B. W. HOOKER & CO.,

Undertakers Funeral Directors Licensed Embalmers
Hospital Ambulance Service—Orders Promptly Attended To.
Telephone 87-11. Also Orange County Phone.

Baby Carriages and Go-Carts

Our new 1911 models are here. All the way from 3 to 30 horse power. "Let us show you."

A. W. BADGER & CO.

Furnishing Undertakers and Embalmers
THE BEST OF AMBULANCE SERVICE
Telephone 447-11 MORSE BLOCK

If you haven't all the business you want, advertise in The Times.

WHEN in need of Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Artists' Materials, and for any other goods in this line, call at the

UP-TO-DATE

Paint and Wall Paper Store

All orders for Painting and Paper Hanging will be given prompt attention.

G. A. WILKINSON

46 Main Street.

Your Attention Is Called

To our large Table Display of

Curtain and Sash Rods

It will pay you to get our prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Great Values in 5c and 10c Rods.

C. N. KENYON & CO.'S CASH BARGAIN STORE

TALK OF THE TOWN

Special Sunday dinner at the City hotel. Phone 134-1.

See Abbott's showing of spring draperies and table covers.

F. C. Fulton of Bradford was in the city yesterday on business.

Don't get fooled until April 1. Wait for the Cameron air-cooled car.

Four first class workmen ready to serve you at Rose's barber shop.

Glenn A. Wilkins of Morrisville was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Twenty large, juicy navel oranges at the New England Fruit Store for 25¢.

Miss Hazel Holt went to Brattleboro today for a few days' visit with friends.

Miss Gretta Cady went to Burlington today for a short visit with friends.

Six, eight and ten-inch double leather belt now carried in stock at N. D. Phelps Co's.

William Bailey of Ladd's store went to White River Junction on a business trip yesterday.

Mrs. P. L. Grendell went to Windsor this morning, where she was called to assist in an operation.

La Vecchia Filodrammatica dara, "Rina L'Angelo Delle Alpi," Sabato sera, 11 Marzo al Barre opera house.

Have you forgotten to pay your interest due March 1 at the Barre Savings Bank and Trust company?

Nice California navel oranges, juicy and sweet, special for Saturday, 18¢ for 25¢ and up to 50¢. United Fruit Store.

The Clover club will meet with Mrs. Cora W. Jackson Tuesday afternoon, March 14. Subject, "A Trip to Siberia."

Buy Franklin coal for the kitchen range. For sale by the D. M. Miles Coal Co. 122 North Main street, telephone 133.

C. E. Dewey of St. Albans, general freight agent of the Central Vermont railway, was in the city yesterday on official business.

The Foresters of America will hold a public Scotch dance in their hall, Worthen block, Saturday, March 11. Melod orchestra. Gentlemen 25¢, ladies 15¢.

Samuel Parady, who has been passing a week in the city, returned yesterday from a short business trip to Burlington, and left to-day for his home in St. Johnsbury.

Special for Saturday, Eureka mixed chocolates, put up in fancy pound boxes. Regular price, 40 cents per pound; for Saturday only, 30 cents per box. Try them at the Barre Candy Kitchen.

Stone cutters genuine, 50 cent glasses, largest size, best frames, special at 30 cents each, for ten days only, also 40 cent glasses for 25 cents. Gordon Riddell, Wheelock block, 135 North Main street.

C. F. Smith, an auctioneer of twenty years' experience, can sell your real estate, farm stock, merchandise, and, in fact, everything you wish to dispose of at public auction. Satisfaction guaranteed. With the D. A. Perry Real Estate Agency, Barre, Vt. Phone 272-1.

Mrs. J. J. Cayuse went this afternoon to Burlington, where she will remain for a few days. On her return she will be accompanied by Mr. Cayuse, who recently underwent an operation at the Fanny Allen hospital.

The candy sales at the Red Cross have become so popular that they are conducting another sale to-day on Quimby's chocolate creams, two pounds for 25¢. Send in your wants early if you expect to get your share. If you can't come telephone.

Ernest S. Leland, who has been here the last two months getting experience in the granite business at his father's plant, left yesterday for his home in New York for a few days' stay, when he will go to Salisbury, N. C., to take charge of Leland & Co's plant there.

Granite lodge, No. 35, F. & A. M., held a largely attended meeting last evening, at which the third degree was conferred on two candidates. District Deputy Walter G. Eastman of Calais was present on his official visit and reviewed the work. At the close of the meeting a banquet was served.

The Millstone Granite company of Barre was incorporated yesterday in Montpelier, where papers signed by D. M. Miles, R. W. Hooker and E. D. Ladd were filed with the secretary of state.

The capital stock of the company is $75,000, of which $50,000 is common stock and $25,000 preferred stock on a basis of 650 shares at $100. It is the purpose of the new corporation to quarry, manufacture, buy and sell granite or to buy or lease such lands as are necessary to carry on the granite trade.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

Makes Home Baking Easy

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure
The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar
NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

TALK OF THE TOWN.

New Ladies' Home Journals at Fitts'. Cash paid for watches, diamonds, gold and silver at Burr's.

Otto coke for sale at Calder and Richardson's, $6.50 per ton.

G. H. Kendrick has returned home from a business trip to Boston.

E. H. Hill of Northfield is a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Allan Reid of Proctor is passing the week-end at his home in this city.

If it is a couch cover you want, see Abbott's spring line of these goods.

Oscar P. Warren of Swanton was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

Harlie Humphrey of Waterbury was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

Herbert C. Leonard, who has been passing a week in Boston on business, returned home last night.

If it's a bargain in a cottage house you are looking for, read J. A. Field's adv. in the classified column.

Some more nice ripe strawberries just arrived at United Fruit Store. Come get a basket before they are gone.

Mrs. C. A. Bemis of Williamstown is a week-end visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Love of North street.

Mrs. E. F. Luna of Montpelier returned home this morning, after passing a week with friends in the city.

Mrs. Emma Slade returned yesterday to her home in West Rutland, after passing several days with friends in the city.

Sabato 11 Marzo la Vecchia Campagna Filodrammatica dara "Rina, L'Angelo delle Alpi," ovvero il "Fovero Semo."

Special for Saturday, peach blossoms, 15 cents per pound. Saturday candy, 20 cents per box, at the Barre Candy Kitchen.

W. H. Messer, carpenter, builder and slate roofer, 123 Orange street, telephone 71-11. First-class workmen furnished by the day or hour.

Mrs. M. Proulx is prepared to do stenography, typewriting, inventory and bookkeeping. Apply at M. M. Gordon's office. Phone 267-1.

Don't forget the M. W. of A. public dance at Howland hall Saturday, March 11. Riley's orchestra. Fifty cents for gentlemen, ladies ten cents.

Mrs. Earl C. Cummings of Summer street was taken to the City hospital in Badger's ambulance last night, where she will undergo treatment.

R. Beni and family will leave the first of next week for New York City, whence they will sail within a few days for their former home in Italy.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning.

At the regular meeting of the Blue Sox club, held recently, the following officers were chosen for the baseball team: Captain, Alfred McKay; manager, Lewis Hoar; assistant manager, Edward McKay. Last year the club had one of the best amateur teams in the city, and the outlook for the coming season is extremely bright.

Sergeant Percy Bennett, until recently stationed at Fort Hancock in New Jersey, has received an honorable discharge and is spending two weeks with friends in the city. He is undecided as to whether he will re-enlist.

Napoleon B. Baker, who has been confined to his home on Summer street with the grippe for the past week, resumed his duties in Ross' barber shop this morning